INITIAL STEPS OF INVASION TAKEN

Meeting Held Saturday in New Haven for the Purpose of Forming a Federal Minor League—President James A. Gilmore Says Federals Will Positively Form a League—Eastern Magnates Meet Today.

The initial step in the invasion of Eastern association and New England territory was taken at a meeting at New Haven Saturday afternoon attended by President James A. Gilmore, of the outflow organization; President Robert B. Ward, of the Brooklyn Federal league club, and a dozen baseball men, when it was announced that a circuit was in process of formation and the organization of a minor Federal league was well under way. No cities nor the applicants for franchises in such cities were announced, but it was officially stated that the invasion had been agreed upon and from now on organized baseball forces would have a battle on their hands.

There were representatives from a number of places in Connecticut, New Hampshire and Massachusetts on hand and after a two hours conference with the Federal head they announced their intention of seeing the thing through and forming a league. Definitions of management and so forth, went over to the next meeting, which it was announced by President Gilmore would be held in a couple of weeks in New Haven.

There was speculation all afternoon from 2 o'clock when the baseball men went into session until about 4 o'clock when President Gilmore called the new newspaper to his room and made the following statement: "We have looked over the entire field and you can say positively that the Federal will invade this territory and place a strong league in the field this summer in opposition to the organized baseball forces in the East."

He said that the Federal will invade this territory and place a strong league in the field this summer in opposition to the organized baseball forces in the East. organize it to our satisfaction. In fact, I might say the outlook is brighter than I had anticipated. "We will have no financial interest in the clubs or we will pass over the players to the clubs and we will pay the differences in salaries between what the players signed with the major organization for and the price given them by the minor league. This will continue in effect as long as the original contract holds with us. This in most of the cases is two and three years.

"I have gone over the ground with the gentlemen here today and have talked over every point and I think of the nucleus for a very fine eight club league is here. I do not wish to name any of the cities we intend to invade and I do not intend to give our hand to organized baseball; the organized baseball men have caused us trouble enough. I will say, however, that at present there is an organized baseball club in every place we intend to invade.

"In a town where a man owning a park wants to jump over to our side and another man in organized baseball who also controls grounds also wants to come with us, we have not decided what we will do. We will be under the best conditions as we see them. We have just set the ball rolling and these points will be decided later. A couple of the cities talked over today look particularly good.

"Each club will be financed locally and no player will be allowed to change clubs or in the naming of its clubs, but at all times we will be in the field to help all we can. We have 30 or 40 players and we will have more later. Our plan is to put, say half a dozen star players in each club and build up a strong team. We should assure a well-balanced league."

Eastern Magnates Meet Today.
The Eastern association directors are scheduled for another meeting at New Haven this afternoon. President, Secretary and Treasurer James H. O'Rourke being listed to call the conference to order at 2 o'clock. The most important questions to be decided are the makeup of the circuit for the season and the decision on consolidation. It is expected President

O'Rourke will outline a plan for a six-club league and this is expected to precipitate a fight between H. H. Clarkin of Hartford, and William Carey, of Springfield arranged against the league executive.

At the first meeting here, although it was not officially announced it was said upon good authority that both Clarkin and Carey practically threw down the gauntlet to O'Rourke, and said the league head could not assure an eight-club league upon a firm basis by the time tomorrow's meeting of the Federal league opposition drew and the league could get along as best it could. With Hartford and Springfield out there wouldn't be much of a chance of the association getting along very far.

Whether the report is absolutely true or not can only be ascertained in a single day. Clarkin and Carey made some remarks at the meeting, and it is also known President O'Rourke has been busting around at a secret pace for some time. Here here two weeks ago. Practically everyone is agreed that a six-club league will not succeed, especially in the physical and financial matters.

Of course the doings of the Federal league at New Haven Saturday will be talked over. It is thought that possibly it would come to O'Rourke and the directors in the northern end of the circuit manage to have their say. The consolidation scheme will be far more likely to succeed than a delegation of New England leagues will attend tomorrow's meeting and talk over plans for the merger.

TUG OF WAR CONTESTS
AT THE Y. M. C. A.
League Opened Saturday Evening with Several Close Matches.

The new league of tug of war contests at the Y. M. C. A. was opened Saturday evening with several close matches. The Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, with eight well-matched teams contesting for a large silver cup donated by the Y. M. C. A. of Boston, was the scene of the contest which was on exhibition in one of the local stores.

In the first contest the Independents showed the better form than the other team in the local league, winning from the B. & A. who put up a hard fight, by inches.

In the second contest, between the Y. M. C. A. and the Third C. K. Rites, the new anchor for the Y. M. C. A. showed a good form and greatly strengthened his team. The contest at 2 minutes was 1 inch in Y. M. C. A. favor, but at 2-1-2 minutes, Third C. K. Rites, which was a small margin, 1-2 inch.

This contest was the surprise of the evening when the strong Third C. K. Rites was beaten after a hard tussle by the new anchor of the Y. M. C. A. team.

Next Saturday evening the eighting of war teams will take the 7-4-4. In this contest Hopkins & Allen, of the Riverbank club and the tug of war contests will be held where the patients will enjoy the contests.

WANTS PROFESSIONAL MEN TO JUDGE YALE-HARVARD RACE.

Harvard Men Anxious to Avoid Such Mixups as Took Place Last June.

The Yale and Harvard rowing authorities are about to take up the negotiations for the series of races in the regatta on the Thames the latter part of June. The date will be set and the usual arrangements will be made and another discussion, likely ensue over the matter of the second variety of eight, which last year took the place of the race between the variety course and the eight between the eight has always been sought by Yale and the Blue is anxious to retain it in the programme of events.

It is more satisfactory number in every way than the race between fours and in view of the fact that Harvard won the race at Henley with the second crew it is thought there will be a desire expressed to keep the second eight together again this year, and although it is not possible to do so on account of the war, there may be other opportunities to race. Certain it is that Yale will fight hard for the retention of the events between the second boats.

Another interesting point to come up at the meeting to be held soon is the suggestion that the Yale and Harvard authorities are anxious to avoid any such mixups as took place last June. If the race should prove close again this summer, and for that reason amateur officials will be dispensed with professional men, who should have been used to witness and judging finishes, will be named.

HARVARD SURPRISED YALE.
Crimson Hockey Team Won Fast Game—Score 4 to 2.

Bad Phillips and Stopper Wykle of the Harvard hockey seven proved too tough a proposition for the Yale team at Boston Saturday night and Harvard won in one of the fastest intercollegiate hockey games of the year by the score of 4 to 2. Phillips scored three goals and Wykle scored one. The Harvard team played a very fast game and the Yale team played a very slow game. The Harvard team played a very fast game and the Yale team played a very slow game.

Yale started the game with a rush and during the early part of the first session had the puck constantly in Harvard territory. Hockey finally taking a pass from Sweeney and slipping it through Wykle for the first score. But a Harvard substitute, who was filling in for Johnny Morgan, came back with a pretty run a minute after and evened matters, carrying the puck through the entire blue team for a score.

Yale again had the advantage for a few minutes, the Harvard team seeming powerless to stop Sweeney's rushes and it was at this stage that Wykle's work counted strongly for Harvard. A rush half the length of the rink by Townsend of Harvard and a pass to Phillips, who shot for the cage, gave the Crimson the lead, but only for a few seconds. For Murray scored in the Harvard goal after the first goal and scored pretty, the half ending with the score 2 to 2.

The second period was all Harvard's. Several substitutes were sent in and their fresher condition began to tell on the Blue. Phillips scored twice in this period, getting the first goal ten minutes after the start, and the second and final score nine minutes after.

Holdouts Reduced in Number.
New York, Jan. 31.—The signing of a contract by Ray Fisher reduces the number of holdouts on the New York American league club to five. The only men belonging to the club who have not signed for next season, so far as can be learned, are Marcie McFall, pitcher, and King, catcher. Fisher, Peter Daley and Angelo Aragon, outfielders, and Jack Kingman, infielder.

McFall has virtually been conceded to the Federal league, which has been forwarded to him, but he has not yet returned it with his signature. Kingman has indicated his intention to leave the club, but has not been heard from recently, nor have Aragon's intentions yet been learned.

Millionaires Disband.
The Faltic Millionaires have disbanded for various reasons after a very successful season. They won six of the seven games they played, every one of them being won by a safe margin. The management wishes to state that they are sorry for the unavoidable disbanding of the team, but they had no game with the Bear Cubs of Taftville.
